WORKERS COMPENSATION TASK FORCE

Lt. Governor Matt Denn and his Workers' Compensation Task Force kicked off their efforts to reduce workers compensation insurance rates in Delaware on Friday, February 8, 2013. The initial meeting of the group created by lawmakers late last month outlined concerns over double-digit insurance cost increases and the strict deadline to make recommendations to the General Assembly. Denn says the group has until May 14th to issue cost-cutting recommendations to the General Assembly. The public meetings will continue on a weekly basis until May 14th. All meeting materials will be available online, and public comment is encouraged.

YOUNG PROFESSIONALS MEETING AND MIXER – TONIGHT!
